PARIS FOR EMBASSY AND USRO

LUXEMBOURG FOR EMBASSY AND LIXCO

Reference: Department telegram 1463

Embassy comments on British statement ABC 27 along following lines:

1. Now clear that no longer possible obtain agreed letter terminating obligations to sell by January 31.
2. Extension of time prescribed settlement conventions as suggested by UK probably only feasible solution in interval to January 31 that three powers can agree on.
3. Department accepts UK statement of end terminal date, say one year, should be specified and open-and-characteristic date eliminated. However, Embassy has doubts whether or not UK's terms of settlement convention regarding establishment of date of final dissolution. UK proposal presumably amounts to agreement to settlement convention. In event no final conclusion, then believes UK proposal should be treated definitely as such.

4. In any event, Embassy continues believe that Federal Republic obligations should be terminated in writing and British and French should clearly understand this. Therefore, in agreeing to UK suggestion we should specify our desire to continue work on draft letter which had been under consideration with view to delivering it during
